"I CONSIDER EVERY WHIG VOTE GIVEN TO MR. VAN BUREN DIRECTLY AIDING THE ELECTION OF MR. CASS."—David Webster.

APPOINTMENTS.—We are authorized to announce that the Hon. ELISHA EMBREE will address the people of Posey County on the issues involved in the Presidential contest at the following times and places:

At Cynthiana on Wednesday, Nov. 1st.
At New Harmony on Thursday, Nov. 2d.
At Mt. Vernon on Friday, Nov. 3d.
At Blairsville on Saturday, Nov. 4th.

The members of all political parties are earnestly solicited to attend.

REFORM OF ABUSES.—The editor of the State Journal, who was not long since at the seat of Government, thus speaks of the manner in which the people's affairs are taken care of by those who have managed to creep into office, and who luxuriate every day upon the fat of the land. He says: If any man doubts the necessity of a change in the administration of our affairs, let him spend a few weeks at Washington City. Go into any of the Departments—the General Land Office, for instance. About eighty clerks are employed, at salaries varying from one thousand to twenty five hundred dollars per year. Stand in the Hall at the head of the flight of stairs, and about ten o'clock in the morning the clerks come sauntering along to go to work. Some of them look as though they had been on a "spree" all night. They go to their desks, take out a cigar, light it, and puff away while they read the morning papers. At length, they write a little, and 3 o'clock arrives and immediately they go to dinner and "loaf" the remainder of the day! And this they call work, for which they pocket thousands of dollars of the People's money for doing worse than nothing. Ten good, industrious clerks, would do the whole work much better, and at one eighth of the cost. There must be reform in this matter, and Gen. Taylor is the very man to bring it about. There would be no drones about him. They could not live in his presence.

The river is very low and but few boats running. The weather pleasant, and business somewhat more brisk for a day or two past.

SLATER, the notorious Slave merchant, has three thousand dollars bet on Cass's election, and the Abolitionists will aid him to win it, if possible, by voting for Van Buren!

"KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE."—At the Union Convention of Barnburners that met in February last, the following resolution was reported by a committee of which John Van Buren was a member and unanimously adopted:

Resolved That Gen. Taylor by his masterly correspondence with the War Department no less than by his heroic conduct and indomitable coolness and courage on the field of battle has shown himself to be not only a distinguished military chieftain but a man of great mental and moral power and whose life has given evidence of a strong head and honest heart, and a Republican simplicity of character.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 24, 1848.

Sales of Sugar 4 1/2 to 5 1/2.

Provisions dull. Markets in other respects unchanged.

The Eastern line is down between Pittsburgh and Philadelphia.

A DIABOLICAL CRIMINAL.—The London papers give an account of the execution of a wretch named Hewson. He had committed a rape upon his own daughter—had compelled her to live in incestuous intercourse with him, the result of which was that two or three children were born, all of which were made away with. The multiplied and horrible crimes—rape, incest, infanticide—were not, however, enough to bring the monster to the gallows.

Some links were wanting to complete the chain of evidence against him; the prosecution for the principal offence had to be abandoned; the wretch was tried for incest, found guilty, and condemned to two years' imprisonment in Coldbath-fields. He was a man utterly demoralized by his guilt—was morose, stupid, rebellious, and firing at a slight but well deserved rebuke, for a jail-offence, conceived the malignant project of assassinating the Governor.

For three months he clung tenaciously to this diabolical purpose, and kept the fatal knife concealed upon his person—all this while waiting with the patience of a demon for a favorable opportunity to commit the murderous act. That, on a sudden inspiration, he used the fatal weapon, reserved for Col. Chesterton, against a subordinate officer, is well known.

He was executed for it—few men ever deserved death better—and he then confessed his former crimes. His poor daughter—the enforced partner in his guilt—an object at once of disgust and interest—is in the female prison, apparently reconciled to her situation, and improving in health and cheerfulness.
